ARIZONA PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The undersigned respectfully invite all editors and managers of the Territorial press to meet with them in the City of Phoenix, at 10 o'clock, October 16, 1890, for the purpose of perfecting the organization of an Editorial Association.

W. L. VAIL, Tucson Citizen.
 L. C. HUGHES, Tucson Star.
 ED. S. GILL, Phoenix Republican.
 J. O. DUNNAN, Phoenix Gazette.
 N. A. MORFORD, Phoenix Herald.

See that you attend the primaries Thursday.

AGAIN we rise to remark that this is a Republican year.

EVERY Republican should make it his duty to attend the primaries tomorrow.

It was a large and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans at the City Hall last night.

It is reported that Hon. Tom Fitch, whose latest residence has been in Nevada, will soon try living in Seattle.

TUCSON schools fly the Stars and Stripes from the top of the school houses. Phoenix schools should do the same.

BELLE NELSON, of Bourbon county, Kentucky, is said to be visiting the Democratic nominee for Congressional Delegate.

THERE was a large turn-out of Republicans at the City Hall last night. There should be even a larger turn-out at the primaries tomorrow.

THERE was no star chamber or ring proceedings in selecting delegates last night. All the work of the meeting was done openly and above board.

The Santa Fe New Mexican is making a gallant fight for Statehood in that Territory. The vote upon the State Constitution occurs October 6.

The Nogales Sunday Herald well says: "One good reason why all good citizens should support George Cheyney is that the Mormons are fighting him with all the energy that organized disreputable citizenship is capable of."

THE Republicans of Phoenix made a good start last night in selecting names to be voted on at the primaries as delegates to the county convention. But this is but the beginning. The next work is to turn out to the primaries and see that the men selected go into the convention with the hearty endorsement of every Republican in the city.

Says the Tucson Citizen: It is stated that the Salt River valley now produces not only enough fruit for the entire Territory, but a sufficient supply to cut an important figure in our resources. The great advantage which Arizona fruit possess is the fact that it comes into the market two or three weeks before the California product. With this advantage who can question the future of the Salt River and other fruit valleys of Arizona. Who can even attempt to measure the wealth which must invariably fall to the lot of those communities.

THE Republicans of San Diego county, California, did themselves proud in renominating Hon. Nestor A. Young for the Legislature. Mr. Young has served two terms in the Assembly with honor to himself and credit to his constituents. He is a man of sterling worth, of unimpaired honor and a tireless worker. In both his terms he has been noted as one of the hardest workers in either House, and San Diego city and county bear witness to the good deeds accomplished for them. As a debater he stands the peer of any man in California, and should the next Assembly be Republican, as it surely will be, we hope to see Nestor A. Young elected Speaker, a position he is eminently qualified to fill. His election is assured by a majority even larger than that of two years ago.

DEATH OF BOUCAULT.

The drama-loving people of America will feel a personal loss in the death of Dion Boucault, dramatist and actor. He was a man of genius, and cultured beyond the run of the members of his profession, having been educated in the Dublin and London universities. His first appearance as an author was when he launched "London Assurance," in 1841. For fifty years this delightful comedy has kept the stage, and a century hence it will probably still delight theatre-goers by its lively, brisk and many-colored comedy acts.

The "Irish Heiress," "Old Heads and Young Hearts," and two score or more of plays followed from his pen, both in England and after he came to this country in 1853. His character portraiture is not excelled by the most eminent dramatists of France, while as a delineator of Irish life he has no rival. His pictures of home life in Ireland are charming, and on these will mainly rest his reputation. "The Colleen Bawn," "Arrah-na-Pogue" and "The Shanghaun" are most delightful dramas, pure in tone and rich in scenes of moving interest. They are samples of a master dramatist, ripened by experience and time and possessed of more heart than were his earlier efforts.

As a comedy actor, Mr. Boucault was as eminent as he was as a playwright, and with many of the older and middle-aged people of the country his acting will be remembered with pleasure and satisfaction.

As a man, Mr. Boucault was the personification of generosity. Though an actor, author and manager he has earned hundreds of thousands of dollars, it is doubtful if he had possessed of a dollar; certainly not a fortune, his income of late years being confined chiefly to the royalties on his comedies, which he never properly protected. Extravagant and profligate, luxurious in all his tastes, he required considerable money, but the bulk of his earnings went to friends in and out of the profession, less successful than himself.

His later life was clouded by unfortunate marriage complications, which even his most devoted friends could not but regret and could scarcely excuse. The curtain must be drawn over this fact in his life, and he should be remembered only for the delightful characters which he has given us and the many charming comedies which he has left as a heritage to generations yet to come.

The editor of the El Paso Herald was formerly a resident of Arizona for several years. He appears to know Peter J. Brady, the nominee of the Democrats for Joint Councilman from the Southern District. At least he talks like one familiar with his subject, as witness the following from the Herald of September 20:

The Democrats of Arizona have nominated Peter J. Brady, of Pinal, for Joint Councilman from the Southern District. The nomination is about as poor a one as could be made. He should never have received it over such a man as Frank Henry, of Tucson, who is young, trusted and progressive, and beside these desirable qualities in a legislator, he possesses another, strikingly absent in Mr. Brady—sobriety. Brady was educated at the expense of the United States Government, but left the service before he had returned "value received" and came West, and has been here ever since. He belongs to that non-progressive class known as fossilized mossbacks, and sticks to old ideas and old methods instead of adopting the new. He is a decade behind the present progressive age, and no doubt plants his chili and corn by the signs of the moon, and prefers a tallow dip to an electric light. When not under the influence of liquor he is courteous, affable and honorable in his transactions, but let him once look upon the bourbon when it is rosy—and he wears strong glasses so that he will not miss it—and the man is entirely changed. He is then the dupe of rages, the tool of the unscrupulous, and if elected would become the plastic victim to the guiles of the fascinating lobbyist. But he will certainly be defeated by his young and talented opponent, W. F. Nichols. In fact, Brady will not carry his own county, where he has lived for thirty years.

But, after all, Brady is a good man—to stay at home.

Says the Tombstone Epitaph: "Let us see. It was Zulick, was it not, who interposed his veto to save Stevens and the rest of the Democratic Prison Commissioners from an investigation? Subsequent events went to show that he knew what he was about. Brady, one of Stevens' bondsmen, who has not yet settled with the Territory, is now a candidate for the Legislature. Why this anxiety on the part of the Democrats to get these two men into the Legislature? It is born of a desire to stave off an investigation that would make some ugly disclosures? This great concern of the Democrats about the Legislature looks suspicious. Better vote for Nichols anyhow, as he is much the safer man."

Says the Globe Silver Belt: "Grant Oury, a representative of Pinal County in the Democratic Territorial Convention, recently held in Phoenix, very justly complained of the desire of Maricopa to run the Convention to the exclusion of the rights of other counties."

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

Ending of the Ten Days of the Jewish New Year.

At 5 p. m. yesterday the Jewish merchants of this city closed their stores for the observance of the Day of Atonement, "Yom Kippur."

On September 14, at sundown, the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah 5651, was ushered in, and since then all devout Hebrews have devoted themselves to many religious duties prescribed in the tenets of their faith as proper in this season.

The entire season from the first day of Rosh Hashanah until Yom Kippur is ended, is called the Asseret Y'mai Shuva, the ten days of penitence and return to the Lord.

According to the Jewish tenets the Lord sits in judgment over the entire human race on the New Year's day, and on the Day of Atonement, the judgment is confirmed. These ten days mark, not merely the beginning of the ecclesiastical, commercial or calendar year, but signify to the Israelites a season of penitence and prayer, and are designated in Hebrew "Yomim Noraim," the "Days of Awe," applying to both the two days, Rosh Hashanah and the Yom Kippur.

All Jewish places of business will remain closed until 5 p. m. today. No special service will be held in Phoenix in observance of the day, there being no rabbi now resident here.

PROCLAMATION OF REWARD.

To whom it may concern:

WHEREAS, It has come to my knowledge that Ed. Baker, eldest son of J. H. Baker, who resides at Lookout, on the Sierra Ancha mountains, about forty miles north of Globe, Gila county, was murdered in a most brutal manner by some person or persons unknown, (though the presence of Indian tracks in the immediate vicinity strongly indicate that the crime was committed by Indians).

Now, therefore, I, Louis Wolfley, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, by virtue of the power within me vested do hereby offer a reward in the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars to be paid out of the treasury of the Territory for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who committed the aforementioned crime.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Territory to be affixed.

Done at Phoenix, the capital, this 20th day of July, A. D., 1890.

Signed: LEWIS WOLFLEY.

[GREAT SEAL.]
